

Safety Tips

A five-minute training Series for Pest Management Professionals

Following Too Close Quiz

Name _____

Date _____

- |  | True                     | False                    |
|--|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1) Following too closely is a common cause of PestSure's vehicle accidents.  | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 2) The best way to establish a safety zone (three seconds behind the vehicle in front of you) is to find a landmark and when the vehicle in front of you passes it, count three seconds and you should then pass that same object. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 3) If the vehicle in front of you is tailgating the person in front of them and has to slam on their brakes, you will lose some of your safety margin.   | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 4) You should always follow closely behind the vehicle in front of you to prevent others from pulling in front of you and cutting you off.   | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 5) Tailgating can save you time and often get you to your destination quicker.   | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |