

A Five-minute Training Series for Pest Management Professionals

Volume 24, Issue 7

Recognizing the Distracted Driver

Name _____

Date _____

- | | True | False |
|---|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1. Tailgating is a sign that a motorist is not visually focused on the drive. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 2. Sounding your horn at a distracted motorist will draw their focus to the drive and assist them to do better. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 3. Fatigue is a condition that can cause distracted driving. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 4. Changes in speed for no apparent reason indicate a driver is responsive and engaged. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 5. Give an inattentive driver space to lessen the chance that you will be involved in a crash. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |